

Board Member: David Greenwell

For more than 35 years, David Greenwell has provided insightful tax and consulting services in his role as a lead tax partner with RSM US, LLP. He and his wife, Pam (an elementary school teacher for 38 years) have two sons and two grandchildren. In addition to his role as a partner with RSM, David also serves on the City Council of Oklahoma City (Ward 5). He received a B.S. degree in accounting from Oklahoma City University and an M.B.A. from the University of Oklahoma, and is a graduate of Harvard's Kennedy School of Government's Comparative Tax Policy and Administration Program. David is a product of the Oklahoma City Public School District and graduated from Capitol Hill High School.

Mr. Greenwell is the Chairman of the Oklahoma Accountancy Board as well as serving on several professional committees for the AICPA and OSCP. He also serves on the Advisory Board for the Steed School of Accounting at the University of Oklahoma. In addition, David is a lead instructor for RSM's internal tax professional training. David and Pam both teach Bible studies at St. Luke's United Methodist Church.
