

Board Member: Phil Horning

Phil was raised in Norman. His mother was a career public school teacher, and his father was a linotype operator at the University of Oklahoma Press. A high school valedictorian and Bass Scholar at OU, he received his B.A. in Economics, was commissioned in the US Army the same year and served two years active duty. He returned to OU and earned a law degree, retiring after 35 years of private practice in downtown OKC. He was listed in "Best Lawyers in America" from 1987 until retirement in 2005. He also served as an adjunct Professor of Law at the OU and OCU law schools

He served eight years on the OKC School Board and is one of the founding directors of John Rex. His interest in public education began after his retirement when he began tutoring children at his neighborhood elementary school.

He has been married to the former Marian Bulla since 1964. They have 2 children and 3 grandchildren.
