

Board Member: Chris Kavanaugh

Chris Kavanaugh is the business manager for Alden Clinic, a psychology group practice based in Oklahoma City. Over his 30-year business career, he has served in a variety of roles, including as CEO for three medical technology businesses. Chris has been awarded two U.S. patents, and his innovations are used in some of the largest medical labs in the world. His broad experience includes raising capital, licensing proprietary technology and forming partnerships with Fortune 500 companies.

He has a long history of volunteer work for charities, especially those in the mental health and substance abuse fields. Chris co-founded the John Rex Elementary PTA and has previously served as its treasurer. In 2019, he chaired the inaugural RexFest, a fundraiser held in downtown Oklahoma City to benefit all Oklahoma City Public Schools.

Chris holds a master of business administration degree from Oklahoma City University.
