SNAP Benefits (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program)

Emergency SNAP benefits related to COVID-19 response are available. Families that have been impacted by job loss or reduction of hours may qualify for temporary food assistance that can help feed your family during this difficult time. Benefits are deposited onto an Electric Benefits Transfer (EBT) card allowing you to purchase groceries at most grocery stores and farmer's markets.

Online Application for SNAP benefits: <http://www.okdhslive.org/> (follow the first link labeled Food Benefits)

There are additional benefits you can apply for using this same application

The Regional Food Bank can help you with this application as well. Please complete this form on the link below and a SNAP Outreach Specialist will follow up with you in 1-3 business days. You can also call to and speak with a SNAP specialist at 405-600-3168.
