

Board Member Rick Rose

Rick is a partner at the Law Firm of Mahaffey & Gore in Oklahoma City. His practice encompasses a variety of individual and business-related litigation, oil and gas litigation, contract disputes, and surface damage disputes, at both the trial and appellate levels.

Rick has previously served as Chief of Staff and Special Counsel to the Oklahoma Speaker of the House and continues to serve the current Speaker.

Rick has been named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers, is a former Chair of the OBA YLD, and OCBA YLD. Rick served on the Board of Governors and was named the OBA Outstanding Young Lawyer in 2010 and the OCBA Outstanding Young Lawyer in 2007.

Rick worked full time while attending school and graduated from Southern Nazarene University (B.S. 2000, distinguished achievement award) and Oklahoma City University (J.D. 2003, Magna Cum Laude, Faculty Honor Roll). In addition to his law practice, Richard is an adjunct professor of American Government at Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City and is a frequent lecturer on the Surface Damages Act.